WESTERN DIVISION
No. 5:13-CV-518-FL

JAMES PARKER, as ADMINISTRATOR, for and on behalf of THE ESTATE OF JAMAL
CLAY,

Plaintiff,

v.

AIRBORNE SYSTEMS NORTH AMERICA
OF NJ, INC.,

Defendant.

CONSENT PROTECTIVE ORDER

This case is before the Court for entry of a protective order pursuant to Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Local Civil Rule 79.2. Plaintiff commenced this action against Airborne Systems North America of NJ, Inc. (“Airborne Systems”) and other defendants on 17 June 2013. As reflected in the voluntary dismissal without prejudice filed by Plaintiff, all defendants other than Airborne Systems have been dismissed from this case. [D.E. 14]. In his complaint, Plaintiff asserts that Plaintiff’s decedent died during a parachute jump training exercise conducted while he was stationed at Fort Bragg with the U.S. Army. Plaintiff brings product defect and negligence claims against the manufacturer of Plaintiff’s decedent’s T-11 Parachute, Airborne Systems. Airborne Systems denies Plaintiff’s claims. Because of the nature of the factual issues involved in this case, the parties anticipate that the discovery in this case may include production and disclosures by the parties and by third parties of information that may be confidential or proprietary, including, without limitation, financial information, trade secrets, proprietary data, medical records, personnel information, and employment records. Accordingly, this Court believes that entry of this Consent Protective Order is in the interest of all parties and in the interest of the fair and efficient administration of justice. Therefore, until further order of this Court, it hereby is ordered that the parties shall follow the procedures set forth below with respect to information, documents, testimony, or tangible things produced or otherwise disclosed in this litigation:

1. The following definitions shall apply in this Consent Protective Order:

a. “CONFIDENTIAL Information” shall mean any information, documents, testimony, or tangible things (“Information”) furnished in the course of this litigation regarded by a party as confidential and/or private information, including proprietary data, trade secrets, other valuable or commercially sensitive information, confidential and private information concerning parties, witnesses, and persons not party to this action, and/or commercially sensitive or otherwise confidential information designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” pursuant to the procedures set forth below. The term may include Information obtained by any party from a third party via subpoena, deposition, or other discovery. The term “documents” shall be broadly construed to include information that is recorded in any form, including but not limited to hard copy, electronically stored information, and audio and video recordings.

b. “ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY Information” shall mean CONFIDENTIAL Information that a party, in good faith, believes is so sensitive that it should not be made available to other parties or their employees and is designated “ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” pursuant to the procedures set forth below. CONFIDENTIAL Information that is designated ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY Information shall also be deemed designated CONFIDENTIAL.

2. “CONFIDENTIAL” and/or “ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” designations shall be made as follows:

a. Information shall be designated CONFIDENTIAL and/or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY within the meaning of this Protective Order in the following ways:

i. In the case of documents or tangible things, including the information contained therein, that are produced by any party, designation shall be made by placing on each page of the document or each tangible thing the legend or stamp CONFIDENTIAL and/or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY.

ii. In the case of documents or tangible things, including the information contained therein, that are obtained by subpoena or other discovery from third parties, the documents or tangible things automatically shall be deemed CONFIDENTIAL Information and ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY Information upon receipt, and the receiving party shall furnish copies thereof to all parties within fifteen business days. All parties then shall have ten calendar days after receipt within which to formally designate any documents or tangible things as CONFIDENTIAL Information and/or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY Information. If no party designates any such document or tangible thing as CONFIDENTIAL and/or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY within said ten-day period, then the CONFIDENTIAL and ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY designation will terminate.

iii. In the case of responses to interrogatories and requests for admission, including the information contained therein, designation shall be made by placing on the pages containing the CONFIDENTIAL Information the legend CONFIDENTIAL and/or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY.

iv. In the case of deposition testimony, counsel may designate, on the record, those portions of a deposition that counsel believes contain CONFIDENTIAL Information or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY Information. If designation of CONFIDENTIAL

Information is made, those portions of said depositions involving such CONFIDENTIAL Information will be taken with no one present except those persons who are authorized to have access to such CONFIDENTIAL Information in accordance with this Protective Order. If designation of ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY Information is made, those portions of said depositions involving such ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY Information will be taken with no one present except those persons who are authorized to have access to such ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY Information. A witness, whose deposition is being taken, may see any document identified as CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY if the witness is within the category of persons entitled to see this type of information, pursuant to the provisions described below in subsections 3(a) and (b). Any party shall have thirty days after the receipt of the deposition transcript to inform the other parties to the action of the portions of the transcript (by specific page and line reference) to be designated as CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY. Unless otherwise agreed by counsel, the right to make such designation shall be waived unless made within the thirty-day period. Prior to such designation or the expiration of the thirty-day period, the entire deposition transcript shall be deemed CONFIDENTIAL Information.

b. The parties agree to designate Information as CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY on a good-faith basis and not for purposes of harassing the other parties or for purposes of unnecessarily restricting the other parties' access to information concerning the lawsuit.

c. Except as permitted by further order of the court, or by subsequent written agreement of the parties, such designated Information shall be received by counsel of record upon the terms and conditions of this Protective Order.

3. The following restrictions apply to Information designated as CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY:

a. CONFIDENTIAL Information: Disclosure of Information designated CONFIDENTIAL, including summaries thereof, shall be limited to the Court; court reporters and videographers of sworn proceedings; the parties' counsel of record and the employees of such counsel who are assisting with this matter; Defendant's in-house counsel, officers, directors, and managers; Plaintiff, provided that Plaintiff's counsel must retain physical custody of the CONFIDENTIAL Information disclosed to Plaintiff, including any copies thereof; and to the following persons, who shall be required first to execute a written declaration, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A: (i) consultants or experts retained by the parties to consult or testify in the case, but only to the extent the information is necessary for the consultation work or to prepare to testify; (ii) services retained by counsel to photocopy or image documents or to prepare charts, summaries, timelines, illustration, or other demonstrative materials to be used in the litigation; and (iii) witnesses and prospective witnesses to the extent deemed necessary by counsel to prepare for or give testimony regarding facts at issue in this litigation, or to assist counsel in performing work in this litigation, but as to this category (iii), counsel must retain physical custody of the CONFIDENTIAL Information unless consent to release it is given by the party that designated it CONFIDENTIAL. The originals of all signed declarations shall be maintained by the party who procures the signature throughout the duration of this litigation, including all appeals.

b. ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY Information:

i. Disclosure of Information designated as ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, including summaries thereof, shall be limited to the Court; court reporters and videographers of sworn proceedings; the parties' counsel of record and the employees of such counsel who are assisting with this matter; Defendant's in-house counsel, officers, directors, and managers; consultants or experts retained by the parties to consult or testify in the case, but only to the extent Information is necessary for the consultation work or to prepare to testify and only after the requirements of subsection 3(b)(ii) below are satisfied; and to the following persons, who shall be required first to execute a written declaration, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A: services retained by counsel to photocopy or image documents or to prepare charts, summaries, timelines, illustrations or other demonstrative materials to be used in the litigation. The originals of all signed declarations shall be maintained by the party who procures the signature throughout the duration of this litigation, including all appeals.

ii. Before disclosing Information designated as ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY to any expert or consultant pursuant to subsection 3(b)(i) above, the following procedures shall be employed:

(1) Counsel shall: (i) notify, in writing by either e-mail and overnight delivery or fax, counsel for the party designating the Information ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY of their desire to disclose such ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY Information; (ii) obtain a written declaration, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B, from each such expert or consultant; and (iii) provide to counsel for the designating party a copy of that declaration.

(2) If no objection to such disclosure is made by the designating party within five business days of receipt of such notification and declaration, counsel shall be free to make such disclosure to the designated expert or consultant, who shall be bound by the signed declaration.

(3) If the designating party objects to such disclosure, counsel may bring before the Court the question of whether the particular ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY Information can be disclosed to the required expert or consultant; however, until and unless the Court orders that the ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY Information may be disclosed to the requested expert or consultant, the Information shall not be so disclosed.

c. All Information that is designated CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY under this Protective Order shall be kept confidential and shall not be given, shown, made available, discussed or otherwise communicated in any manner ("disclosed"), either directly or indirectly, to any person not authorized to receive the Information under the terms of this Protective Order. CONFIDENTIAL Information and ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY Information received by any authorized person shall be used only for purposes of this litigation and for no other purpose.

d. In no case shall Information designated CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY be disclosed to any person or entity who competes directly or indirectly with Defendant, including its representatives and agents, that represents or is engaged in organizing Defendant's employees.

4. If, through inadvertence, a party produces any Confidential Information without designating it as CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, the party may, as soon as reasonably practical, inform the other parties of the intended CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY designation, and all parties shall treat such Information as CONFIDENTIAL Information or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY Information under this Protective Order. To the extent that any party already has disclosed this Information, that party promptly shall notify the designating party as to the specific recipients of such Information and shall take all reasonable steps to remove such Information from said recipients unless they otherwise are entitled to disclosure under this Order.

5. If any Information designated CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY is disclosed to any person other than in the manner authorized by this Order, the person responsible for the disclosure must immediately bring all pertinent facts relating to such disclosure to the attention of counsel for the designating party and, without prejudice to any other rights and remedies of the parties, make every effort to prevent further disclosure by it or by the person who was the recipient of such Information.

6. No person or party shall directly or indirectly utilize or disclose any CONFIDENTIAL Information or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY Information for any purpose other than the prosecution or defense of this action, including any appeals and retrials thereof, and such utilization or disclosure must be in compliance with this Order.

7. Before filing with the Court any document (including, but not limited to, pleadings, briefs, memoranda, depositions, and exhibits) containing or consisting of Information that has been designated CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, counsel shall confer with counsel for the party that so designated the Information about how it should be filed. If the party that so designated the Information desires that the materials be filed under seal, then the filing party shall file the materials in accordance with Local Civil Rule 79.2 and Section T of the Court's Electronic Case Filing Administrative Policies and Procedures Manual, with notice served upon the designating party. Only those portions of the document containing or consisting of Information that has been designated CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY need be filed under seal, and the filing of the materials under seal shall not be binding on the Court. Within seven days of service of such notice, the party desiring that the materials be maintained under seal shall file with the Court a Motion to Seal and supporting memorandum of law specifying the interests that would be served by restricting public access to the Information. The party that initially filed the materials need not file any such Motion to Seal or otherwise defend another party's desire that the materials remain sealed. The Court will grant the Motion to Seal only after providing adequate notice to the public and opportunity for interested parties to object, after carefully weighing the interests advance by the movant and those interests favoring public access to judicial documents and records, and upon finding that the interests advance by the movant override any common law or constitutional right of public access which may attach to the documents or Information. Documents and Information submitted under seal in accordance with this paragraph will remain under seal pending the Court's ruling. If the party desiring that the Information be maintained under seal does not timely file a Motion to Seal, then the materials will be deemed unsealed, without need for order of the Court.

8. Each time a party seeks to file under seal confidential documents, things, and/or information, said party shall accompany the request with a motion to seal and a supporting memorandum of law specifying: (a) the exact documents, things, and/or information, or portions thereof, for which filing under seal is requested; (b) where it is necessary for the court to determine the source of the public's right to access before a request to seal may be evaluated, whether any such request to seal seeks to overcome the common law or the First Amendment presumption to access; (c) the specific qualities of the material at issue which justify sealing such material, taking into account the balance of competing interests in access; (d) the reasons why alternatives to sealing are inadequate; and (e) whether there is consent to the motion. Finally, in addition to the motion and supporting memorandum, said party must set out such findings in a proposed order to seal for the court.

9. The parties and their attorneys shall inform all witnesses, consultants, employees, agents, court reporters, and anyone else who has or had access to any material designated CONFIDENTIAL Information or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY Information of the substance of this Order.

10. Acceptance or receipt by any party of any Information designated as CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, or with no designation, shall not constitute a concession that the Information is properly so designated or not designated. If any party disagrees with the designation of any such Information as CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, then the party first shall try to resolve such dispute on an informal basis through consultation with counsel. If agreement cannot be reached by counsel, then the party opposing the designation may present such dispute to the Court by motion, but all such designations shall be respected pursuant to the terms of this Order until the Court rules on the motion. In the resolution of such matter, the burden of establishing confidentiality shall be on the party who made the claim of confidentiality. Notwithstanding the designation or non-designation of any Information as CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, the parties reserve their right to seek relief regarding material that they believe was illegally obtained, including, but not limited to, the return of the material and/or damages for misappropriation or unauthorized use.

11. This Order shall be without prejudice to the right of any party to oppose production of any Information on grounds other than confidentiality.

12. This Order shall not prevent any party from applying to the Court for relief herefrom, from applying to the Court for further or additional protective orders, or from agreeing with the other parties to modify or vacate this Order, subject to the approval of the Court.

13. Within thirty days of the conclusion of this action, including any appeals, all Information designated as CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY by a party pursuant to this Order, and all copies thereof, shall be destroyed by all other parties, except that counsel for each party is entitled to keep copies of pleadings and correspondence and any attachments or exhibits thereto, including CONFIDENTIAL Information and/or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY Information, used in this litigation in a secure storage area subject to the terms of this Consent Order. Within twenty-four hours of destruction, a party shall confirm such destruction in writing to the designating party. The provisions of this Order insofar as they restrict the disclosure, communication of, and use of CONFIDENTIAL Information and ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY Information produced hereunder shall continue to be binding after the conclusion of this action.

14. Nothing in this Order shall prevent or limit a party who has designated any Information as CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY from, in writing and without Court Order, releasing such Information.

15. Any party to this action may file a motion requesting that the Court sanction or hold in contempt of Court anyone who violates the terms of this Order.

It is so ORDERED, this 2nd day of June, 2014.
